ONLY A YARN

A parish church was being beautified with a stained-glass window.
The old sexton was watching the work. The rector, seeing him thus intent, remarked: "Well, John, and what is your opinion of the window?" "Well," was the reply, "in my opinion they might have been content with the glass as God made it."

It was a sleepy village, and its fire department was anything but up-to-date. One night a fire was announced by the violent ringing of the alarm bell, and the sleepy brigade arrived at the scene of action to find the burning building a mass of smoke. No flames were visible from the outside. The captain made a careful survey. Then he lit his pipe and started to smoke. "We'd better leave it alone and let it burn up a bit," he said. "Then we'll be able to see what we are doing."

DAVID MILLER

Aged Resident of District Died on Monday Last

David Miller, aged between 60 and 70 years, who has for some considerable time been employed here and there throughout the district, died at his rooming place on Monday a week ago. Little is known of his relatives and the effort to locate same has thus far been futile. There were circumstances in connection with his death that were sufficient to necessitate an inquest, and the same stands adjourned until a report is received on the analysis of the stomach of deceased.

ARMISTICE DAY

Ceremonial at Vulcan on Monday
November 7

The program which appears in double column on this page is evidence of the splendid activity of the committee of the Community club to have Armistice Day properly and creditably observed in Vulcan. It is also a credit to the community that the proposition is receiving undivided support. The arrangements made and the program as announced assure the realization of the object desired. Everybody is invited to participate in this interesting and worthy event.

GIRLS' CLUB

Local Organization Hold Successful Meeting

A meeting of the W. I. Girls' Club was recently held at the home of Ruth Rolston, with Miss Tingle as supervisor. There were eleven members present and one visitor. After the business had been discussed, the meeting was adjourned. The selections for the concert were then practiced, after which games were played and refreshments were served by the hostess.

THE SUPPER

Ladies of the R.C. Church Provide Fine Feast

The chicken supper on Saturday night, given by the ladies of the Roman Catholic church, was in every particular a great success. It could not have been better. There was chicken aplenty and to spare; it was piled mountains high all along the lengthy tables. It was surrounded with salads of all kinds, and jellies and pickles, and everything. The supper was indeed great, and almost everybody was there and all were more than satisfied. The fine accommodation afforded by the L.O.O.F. hall and the splendid service rendered by the ladies made the event just perfect. The excellent financial returns are a deserved reward for the very generous entertainment provided by those who directed the affair.

U. F. W. A.

Berrywater Local Held Meeting on October 26

The Berrywater U.F.W.A. held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday, October 26, at the home of Mrs.
J. Douglass. The meeting was opened by the singing of "Equal Rights for all." The regular routine business being dealt with, Mrs. Mills, the delegate to the political convention, gave a splendid report of the year's work of the association, also of the nomination of the candidate to represent the farmers at the coming election. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Oldfield on November 9.
The ladies desire to have a large representation at this meeting if possible to make final arrangements for fowl supper.

GOOD WORK

Local Ladies Initiate Campaign of Assistance

Members of the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of the Union church have joined forces in a laudable undertaking, and they invite the co-operation of all who desire to in-any way assist. They propose the collection of clothing and other articles from all who are disposed to contribute and the distribution of these to the people of the district who might be unable to provide for their own necessities. Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Stewart have been appointed to receive donations and to give information in connection with the project.
They also will receive applications from those who might require assistance.

The former political idea could not be better expressed than in this statement made by Mrs. Hamilton, U.
F.W.O. representative at a political meeting in Simcoe, Ont., in support of J. A. Wallace, a U.F.O. candidate: "We are not putting Mr. Wallace in, we are putting a U.F.O. man in." It is the organization first, last and all the time.

LOCAL ITEMS

Men's Mackinaws, all wool, at $10.00—Spoooner's sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cumming spent several days in Calgary last week, visiting with friends.

Mr. A. G. Spooner, was a business visitor to Calgary last week for a couple of days.

Mr. Dyce Allan, who has been shooting in the foothills for the past week, returned on Monday, and reports a very successful trip.

Two fellows with a skin full of booze, and drop in the bottle for the morning, were copped by the P. P. officer on Saturday night. They each made a contribution of $10 or more to the provincial exchequer.

Monday night was "Hallow'een." The kiddies were out in force, and the large number clad in hoods and gowns decorated with strange devices, gave the appearance of the Klu Klux Klan turned loose. They had lots of fun.

We notice in the "Here and There" column of last week's issue, that the author is making items out of the words which we use in our locals.
This shows that even the most learned people read our locals.

The following Vulcan names appeared in last Thursday's issue of the Morning Albertan, as winners in the Football Competition: D. C. Jones, J.
P. Reid and M. A. Shimp, all in third place. First prize is expected to arrive here this week.

Our postmaster says: "Mail orders are falling off," reason, Spooner has them beaten.

Vulcan Band has not made a public appearance for some time, but the interval has been used to good account, and with the addition of some excellent players that has been recently made, Bandmaster Ober will present a splendid organization on Monday next.

A resident on Minerva street, in a communication to The Advocate, complains of being annoyed by boys nearly every night between eight and nine o'clock, the annoyance being rapping and banging on the house doors and windows. This is a tip to the boys to cut it out.

The "Dollar Dance" continues to increase in popularity, and the last on Friday night was better than the rest.
They were there from everywhere, and the big bunch had a great time.
Clareholm and Nanton, and Blackie and Brant, were largely represented, and they're all coming again.

Classified advertisements in The Advocate have recently recovered a lost hand bag and a lot of wrenches, discovered the owner of a lost pocketbook, and they have been the medium for the purchase and sale of innumerable things. And they are so cheap—fifty cents for the first time in and twenty-five cents for each time afterwards.

An institute or meeting of the teachers of Vulcan and outlying districts will be held in Vulcan, on Friday, November 4. A program of addresses and papers of interest in the work has been arranged. At the morning session of the institute a paper on "School Fairs" will be given, which will be followed by discussion.
Those interested are asked to attend.

TWO MORE

Liberals and Conservatives Nominate in Bow Valley

Two conventions in one day, both held in Calgary on Monday, have resulted in adding interest to the election campaign in Vulcan and the constituency of Bow Valley. The U.F.A. candidate has been alone in the field for some time, but now there are three, the Liberals and the Conservatives having made a selection of their candidates.

W. R. Fulton, merchant, of Drum-heller, is the Meighen candidate, being the choice of three nominees. Mr.
Purcell, of Brooks, and Mr. Murray, of Drumheller, were the other two nominees. The nomination of Mr.
Fulton was made unanimous on the motion of the defeated nominees.

Harry Scot, of Gleichen, is the selection of the Liberals. Mr. Scott, who was the defeated candidate in the Gleichen riding in the provincial election, had no opposition in the convention. He was not present to either refuse or accept the nomination, but it is expected that he will consent, and the campaign will at once be inaugurated on his behalf.

WHY FREIGHT RATES ARE HIGH

F. P. Brady, of the Canadian National Railways, in a statement before an arbitration board cited an outstanding case of the oldest engineer on the Halifax and Southwestern railway, who had been allowed to choose his own run. In the course of a year, with overtime this engineer had managed to take a full month's holiday and still collect pay checks amounting to $6,000 for running his engine over a short line.

mealy. Per 100 lbs. $2.00—Dyce Allan.

Mrs. Arthur Neiman spent the weekend in Calgary, visiting with friends and relatives.

Born at the Maternity Hospital, Vulcan, on October 31, 1921, to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Goffett, Kirkcaldy, a daughter.

Mrs. Jack Thompson left last week for Winnipeg, where she will visit for the next week with her mother, Mrs. Bishop, formerly of this district.

Mrs. Art Fitzpatrick and baby girl left on Saturday evening for the north, where they will spend a month visiting with friends in Calgary.

The sale of poppies on Armistice Day will be in charge of members of the Ladies' Aid. Everybody should buy and wear a poppy on that day.

The Vulcan Women's Institute will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Simington, at 3 o'clock.
Mrs. Kettleson will assist Mrs.
Simington.

Miss Winnifred Daines of the local telephone office staff, who has been spending her vacation in Lethbridge and Cardston, returned on Monday evening.

Spoooner's Sale, like Johnny Walker,
"Still going strong."

The ladies of the R. C. church desire to convey their best thanks to those who contributed in any way to the success of the supper on Saturday night. Donations, assistance and patronage are truly appreciated.

The report is current that Premier Meighen is to visit Vulcan during his election itinerary in the West, and the probability is that he will stop for a time here while on the trip from Lethbridge to Calgary.

Detective Schoeppe, who is now chief in charge of the Liquor Act enforcement in Southern Alberta, paid a business visit to Vulcan recently.
We have not heard that he picked up any business.

About twenty friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.
L. Kehr on Monday evening to a farewell party to Mr. Mervin Kehr, who leaves this week on an extended trip through the States. Dancing, music and cards was the order of the evening. While the party were enjoying themselves, some unknown man or men from town motored out and punctured the tires of two of the automobiles. If the party who did this trick will call at Mr. Kehr's he will no doubt receive his reward.

Halloween was certainly observed by the young boys of this town, as was shown by the state of nearly, if not all the windows of the business houses in town. Householders were busy all-day Tuesday looking for gates, which were hidden in back alleys, and many other places practically out of reach.

The grain delivery this year to the Vulcan elevators now totals considerably more than two hundred thousand bushels. This would be a small amount for Vulcan in a good year, but it is remarkably good for such a bad year.

An aeroplane passed back and forth over Vulcan one day last week. It was a machine from the High River air station, and was in charge of Capt.
Tudhope who, in later conversation with The Advocate man, mentioned having observed the activities of this little city on his trip over.

Let every true Canadian man, woman and child consider it a sacred obligation to wear the bright red poppy on Armistice Day. It will hold and preserve the link of affection between the two sister countries—France and Canada. Help the poor martyrs, alleviate the distress in your midst, and keep alive the memory of those who brought back honor to their country, glory to their flag, and peace to the world.

EVERY business should have a reserve account into which a certain portion of the profits go regularly to create a fund available for development or emergency. The farmers herd of cattle is his reserve fund and should be continually growing. If you need a loan, see us.

THE VULCAN ADVOCATE

VULCAN, ALBERTA

NORTH DAKOTA

The Non-Partisan League has just been defeated in a recall election in North Dakota. The league developed such strength of members that it possessed the political control of the state, and the business of the state was conducted according to the policies of the league and by its elected representatives. And it was a failure. The Non-Partisan League was even more partisan than any other of the political parties, and its administration was bad. Recall proceedings were instituted, and now the league state officials have been defeated. The class idea has developed into a country versus town battle, and the latter have won. The result is a natural consequence of a political organization based on the plans of the league. There is not now a Non-Partisan League in Alberta, but for a time it existed in the province. It has been absorbed by an organization which is at present flourishing here.

The announcement is made that the Canadian National railways made a profit of more than half a million dollars in the month of September. These roads are the people's roads, and the people will welcome such splendid news. This announcement confirms the statement recently made by Mr. Hanna that the situation of the Canadian national railways should not be regarded from too gloomy a viewpoint. The publicity given to this success of the government owned and operated lines would suggest that it is uncommon, and for this it is the more appreciated.

Cloudbursts and floods have been the cause of much loss of life and the destruction of property in British Columbia. And Alberta sympathizes with those who suffer and lose. But the awful occurrence cannot help but bring to the minds of the people here that the lack here of that which has been given in destructive abundance there has made crops a failure and has brought the consequent hard times and other unwelcome conditions. It is one of the circumstances which is difficult to understand.

This is good business, real good business. A resolution asking for the appointment of a joint commission of the national educational associations of the United States and Canada to review the school histories of those countries "to the end that the history teaching in these countries may be made true to the interests of harmony and good will in the several English-speaking countries without violating vital historical truths" has been adopted by the Washington educational association.

Buy a poppy and wear it on Armistice Day. It is the least you can do to express reverence for the dead who died for those who live. And the price you pay will be aid to the destitute. What better appeal could there be?

Reports presented at the recent sessions of the Provincial Chapter, developed the fact that Alberta is not supporting the I.O.E.E. educational and other schemes as strongly as other provinces of the west. The I.O.E.E. is engaged in a real work, a work that should command the support of loyal and patriotic citizens, and Albertans surely will not long remain in the position it at present occupies in this connection.

Now comes the announcement that the telephone rates are again to be increased. Talk is cheap, was generally accepted in times past as a fact, but now it is getting more costly every day.

There is no rule in the world more lauded and less used than the Golden Rule. Indeed, it has come to be a widely accepted maxim that "you can't do business by the Golden Rule."

Collingwood Bulletin: The convention of Chief Constables, in session at Montreal, had no sympathy with the sentimental twaddle that is so often heard in behalf of convicted and sentenced criminals. Inspector McKenney declared amidst great applause: "We are becoming a nation of sympathetic whiners, sending flowers and loving messages to condemned murderers. What we need is a saner attitude towards the criminal class, and the sooner people cease getting up petitions for the commutation of sentences, the better it will be for the smooth and effective working of the law." "This is common sense," aptly comments the Brantford Expositor, "and good citizens everywhere ought to frown upon all attempts of such people to interfere with the due processes of the law. After the country has spent thousands of dollars in establishing the guilt of a criminal, there are always some sentimental sympathizers, ready to undo the work."

Sentinel Review: The death is announced of Amos K. Fluke, formerly an editorial writer on the New York Times and the author of many books. There are some things in the story of his life which are worth noting by even those who have never heard of him. He was born on a farm, and spent his early boyhood there and in a village cotton factory, where he worked as a "bobbin boy" from the age of ten to thirteen. At the age of fifteen he was left an orphan and without means, yet he worked his way through college, studied law and was called to the bar and finally became a distinguished journalist and author. Parents who argue that there is no use in giving an education to a child who has no expectation of making a living by his education should make a note of this case. It did not look as if there was much of a future for the little farmer lad who had become a "bobbin boy" in a cotton factory. But who can tell what is ahead of any boy in this world of opportunity?

Every boy should have the advantage of at least as much schooling as will enable him to know the meaning and value of education and leave him with the desire and the ability to continue the work of education after his school days are over. And this applies to girls as well as boys.

The Guardian: The Supreme Court of Massachusetts has just given a decision concerning a physician of that state which is worth noting. Dr. A. A. Lawrence, of Boston, is said to have committed an act which displeased the Board of Registration in Medicine, and the members of the Board asked him to appear before them and explain the matter. This he refused to do, and appealed to the court to prevent the Board taking any action in the matter, as he said he had been practising medicine for years before the board was created and so had acquired certain vested rights, upon which the board had no right to infringe. The case on appeal came before the Supreme Court, and that court ruled that while the right of a physician to toil in his profession is recognized and must be guarded against all unwarrantable interference, yet this right is not absolute and must yield to the paramount right of the government to protect the public health by rational means. The court said: "A physician, however, skilful, who is guilty of deceit, malpractice or gross misconduct in the practice of his profession, even though not amounting to an offense against the criminal laws, well may be thought to be pernicious in relation to the health of the community. It is for the Legislature to determine within reasonable limits in the exercise of the police power what the tests shall be for moral character sufficient to enable one to continue in the practice of medicine. He has no vested right to prey upon society by the exercise of deceit, malpractice or gross misconduct in the practice of his profession. His license to practice constitutes no contract of that nature." This assertion of the rights of society as overriding the right of the individual is becoming increasingly common, and is well founded both in reason and in law.

An opinion, which has been expressed repeatedly of late, is that the difficult times we are passing through are not wholly due to the direct or even the indirect effects of war reaction. The trouble is due to the fact that so few of us are willing to set ourselves to hard work. Not necessarily hard work of the stone-breaking order, but the kind of work that demands our best energies, our interest, our enthusiasm, first and foremost, and our thought of the double reward, most of us draw from work, second. After the Franco-Prussian war Bismarck is said to have remarked how France was working night and day to meet her obligations—a fact that caused the astute statesman to voice the opinion that France was prospering and Germany was slipping back commercially. Germany today is doing what France did in the middle and late seventies of the past century—working night and day. Do we, who cannot accuse ourselves of like energy, realize what may happen this time? When we review the situation the question naturally comes to our mind, shall we watch Germany work night and day and not make a move at least to work the better part of the day? Shall we watch her bend all her energies to meet her obligations and not put forth a strong effort to meet our own obligations as soon as possible? Shall we, and the allied countries, stand aside and watch Germany capture many things that commercially should be ours? This second calamity will not fall on the allies or ourselves if once more we all begin again at hard work—the work which we agree includes the exercise of our brains, our muscles, our interest, our enthusiasm. Even at this rate hard work will not be hard work if we provision the result our efforts will mean to Canada.

THE TARIFF

Let us look at the duties on implements, (1) as they were at the time of Mr. Meighen's resolution, (2) as they were prescribed in the Fielding Reciprocity agreement of 1914, (3) and as they are now. Here is the statement:

VULCAN DISTRICT SCHOOL FAIR

Below is the list of prize winners in connection with the Vulcan District School Fair held October 6. A detailed list will be sent to each teacher at a later date. The fair is gradually getting under way and the committee is drafting suggestions for the fair of next year. Better accommodation will be arranged for a more substantial list of prizes and a better arranged program. This year on account of limited finances, it has not been possible to do justice to the prize winners, as the committee would like, but the real object of the fair is not the prizes but the good that comes of doing ones best in competition with others.

RIDDLES

What is the difference between a little girl with a bad toothache and bad weather?

One is roaring with pain and the other is pouring with rain. Which are the bells that never ring?

Dumb-bells. What can go through a wood without touching a twig?

An echo. Which part of a tree is most polite? The bow (bough).

Why is an old coat like a kettle? Because it represents hard wear (hardware).

Which is the best way to make a thin boy fat? Tap him on the back and he will look round.

What is the difference between a very surprised boy and a leopard's tail?

One is rooted to the spot; the other spotted to the root. Find a word in which the first two letters stand for a man, the first three a woman, the first four a brave man, and the whole a brave woman?

Heroine.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORK IN ALBERTA

There Are 18,000 Members in this Province and they are Being Instructed in their Duties

A comprehensive review of the work of the Junior Red Cross in the Province of Alberta, is contained in the report recently issued by the superintendent of this department at the provincial headquarters in Calgary.

It shows that there are approximately 18,000 Junior Red Cross members in Alberta, all of them recruited from the schools in the province.

Many of the schools have won the Lieut.-Governor's Banner for 100 per cent. enrollment and many others have been awarded the certificate for 75 per cent. membership. The new units of the junior organization are now all being instructed in their duties. Their work is all for the sick and crippled children of the province, whose parents cannot afford to give them the best medical treatment necessary for their cure. All that the juniors make by their efforts goes to this cause. None of it is used for administration expenses.

WERE TOO HOGGISH The Toronto Telegram says 18 trainmen have been dismissed for stealing. These men were not satisfied with taking sugar, boots and tobacco, etc., but entered a car of hogs, unloaded some at a certain point, and in their off-hour killed them and prepared them for market.

Coming—Wm. S. Hart, in
"The Cradle of Courage"ARE WE WORTHY OF OUR HERITAGEWe Are Privileged in Living in Such a Great Country and Should Be Broadminded and Courageous

Two characteristics of this West of ours justify consideration at this critical period in its affairs because of the parallels they suggest in human nature. Perhaps the first thing that strikes the traveller across our vast plains is the clearness with which objects far away stand out. In the solution of the difficulties we have to face today one of the most necessary factors is a broad outlook, and another of equal importance is a clear and unobstructed vision. "Where there is no vision," it is said, "the people perish." Are we in danger today from a too narrow and selfish view of our national, local and individual problems and from too little consideration of the broad principles and fundamental laws which must inevitably govern the result of all our actions whether we like it or not?

Another thing that strikes the traveller through this country of great distances is the courageous and enterprising spirit that must have filled the men and women who first undertook to conquer what was then a lonely wilderness. The West of today has its problems, but when they are compared with those which faced the early settlers they fade into insignificance. Surely we who have followed them do not lack the courage and resourcefulness to tackle in the same manly way the obstacles to the successful carrying out of the tasks which we in our turn have undertaken! The pioneer did not say, "Let George do it," nor did he spend valuable time seeking some magic but elusive formula of government or of economic policy which would without personal effort turn this land into one of perpetual ease and plenty. Instead, he followed—whether consciously or not—that very efficacious recipe for getting things done well. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

Unfailing good fellowship and unselfish hospitality were also characteristic of the West that used to be. Some say we are losing these qualities as the country grows more closely settled and the conveniences of civilization become more accessible. What a pity if that should be true! Was there ever a time when a realization of the essential brotherhood of man was more necessary? Let us keep our traditions in this and other respects always before us. There may be those who think that a country so young as this can have no traditions worth while, and to all such a study of its intimate history is to be recommended. Let them talk with the old-timers who were our early pioneers. There are still some of these great people in every community. Let us see to it that we are true to our traditions and as broadminded and courageous as we ought to be if we are to be worthy of this good land in which we live. If we are worthy followers of our early pioneers and nation-builders, what a great country we can make of this for ourselves and for those who will come after us!

Nearly seven million bushels of grain has been shipped out of southern Alberta and it is still moving at the rate of seventy-five thousand bushels daily.

RED CROSS NEWS

Messrs. J. L. Kehr, Edgar Kehr, Beestlestone, E. Love and W. McPherson, left Saturday, October 22, for the mountains on a hunting trip.

Mr. Mervin Kehr and Mr. and Mrs. Greenlee motored to Calgary for a week-end visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kelly and children spent the week at Spring Coulee, visiting relatives.

Mr. Jacob Eamor and Miss Beatrice Robinson were quietly married, Thursday, October 27. Their friends join in wishing them many happy years of married life.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Will Dexter on the arrival of a son at Miss Rinehart's Maternity Home, Tuesday, October 25.

A swarm of "Bees" invaded Mr. Reeve's store last Saturday, Oct. 22 and made quite a hum. We marveled at the good humor of Mr. Reeves and Mr. Grant. However, as no one seemed to be getting stung, the out-of-town customers enjoyed the tea and chance to buy "sweets."

Mr. Roy Fulton has gone to Glenwoodville to work on the Irrigation ditch.

Mr. Leslie Richardson left last week for Claresholm, to attend the Agricultural College.

REID HILL NEWS

Mr. Lyle, the Sunny Glen teacher, visited friends on the reserve over the week-end.

Mr. J. McRobert's nephew, Lorne Healy, of Ontario, is visiting him.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mach, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Heath, left for California on Thursday.

Mr. McLauren of Calgary held services in the Reid Hill Baptist church on Sunday, October 30. In the evening, Mr. McLauren gave a splendid talk on Northern Alberta, where the Baptists are pushing ahead their mission work. The lecture was accompanied by very interesting lantern slides of Alberta, especially scenes of the wonderful country around Peace River and Grande Prairie. Mr. McLauren has personally visited all these outposts of the gospel, travelling by most primitive ways in many cases.

It is rude for a man to fall asleep while his wife is talking. But, good heavens, a man has to sleep some time.

RECORD MADE IN GRAIN SHIPMENTS

The Canadian Pacific Railway Moved From Winnipeg 1,519 Loaded Cars of Grain in 24 Hours

The Canadian Pacific Railway on October 25, broke the world's record as far as grain handling is concerned by moving east from Winnipeg, 1,519 loaded cars in twenty-four hours. These cars were handled in forty-one trains and they contained between two million five hundred thousand and three million bushels of grain. If the cars were placed in a continuous line without the locomotives attached they would cover a distance of twelve miles.

This is certainly a remarkable feat and goes to show what this great railway organization is capable of doing when put to the scratch. In 1915 they established a record when they moved over the same territory 1,493 cars on October 29.

THANKSGIVING AND
ARMISTICE DAY

Misunderstanding on Part of Public is Cleared Up—Thanksgiving on November 7

There still prevails some misunderstanding on the part of the general public regarding Thanksgiving Day and Armistice Day. The Times is therefore, again referring to this matter.

At the last session of parliament, "an act respecting Armistice Day" was passed, with the following provision:

"Throughout Canada in each and every year the Monday in the week in which the eleventh day of November shall occur, being the day in 1918 in which the Great War was triumphantly concluded by an armistice, shall be a legal holiday, and shall be kept and observed as such under the name of Armistice Day.

"The holiday commonly called Thanksgiving Day being a day usually appointed in the month of October or November by proclamation as a day of general thanksgiving to God, shall whenever appointed be proclaimed and observed for and on Armistice Day."

November 11 this year falls on Friday. The preceding Monday, Nov. 7, will accordingly be observed as the joint anniversary of the signing of the Armistice and of Thanksgiving Day.

CLEARING CATTLE
OF TUBERCULOSIS

Interesting Article Issued by Department of Agriculture, Ottawa on the Above Subject

The accredited herd system put in operation two years ago by the Health of Animals Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa has been well received by the stockmen of the country. It is confined to pure bred cattle and is intended to rid as rapidly as possible the disease of tuberculosis from Canadian herds. Figures given out by the Veterinary Director General show that thirty-six herds had up to October 1, been fully accredited. The breeds represented are the Ayrshire, Holstein, Jersey, Shorthorn and Aberdeen Angus, the dairy breeds predominating. The accredited herds are widely distributed. Nova Scotia has 1; Quebec 9; Ontario 10; Manitoba 2; Saskatchewan 4 and British Columbia 10.

Besides the herds which have been fully accredited there are at present 558 herds which have been tested once or more in process of accreditation, and 54 herds awaiting the first test, making a total of 648 herds. As the herds in this lot fulfil the necessary conditions, they become fully accredited. The Inspectors of the Health of Animals Branch are making as rapid progress as is possible under the circumstances, taking into consideration the limited number of men engaged in the work and the great importance of doing the testing carefully and accurately rather than rapidly.

The reactors are always removed from the herd at once and usually are immediately slaughtered under veterinary supervision. Applications for tests have been coming in faster than they could be dealt with. A waiting list has therefore been formed and as soon as circumstances permit the herds in this list will be tested, taking them as far as possible in the order in which application have been received.

It's time to take off the screen windows.

PASS THE APPLES

When every pool in Eden was a mirror That unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed, She went undraped without a single fear or thought that she had need to be ashamed.

'Twas only when she'd eaten of the apple That she became inclined to be a prude, and found that everyone she'd have to grapple With the much-debated problem of the nude.

Thereafter she devoted her attention, Her time and all her money to her clothes, And that was the beginning of Convention, And Modesty, as well, I do suppose.

Reactions come about in fashions recent, Now girls conceal so little from the men, It would seem, in the name of all that's decent, Someone ought to pass the apples 'round again.

KEPT THE RAIN OFF

A Cockney who got a job out in the country, had to drive a horse to the village for the farmer who employed him—and was told that he must be careful to keep the rein from the horse's tail.

When he returned the farmer asked him if he had any trouble. "Oh no!" he answered, "we only had one shower, and while it lasted I managed to hold an umbrella over the horse's tail."

A PHILOSOPHICAL DISCOURSE President Wood of the U.F.A. spoke in Nanton last week and the News in a report of the address says:

Mr. Wood elucidated his economic class group theory, but dwelt mostly on co-operation of the groups. This is a phase of Mr. Wood's philosophy which is quite generally overlooked—and his followers are as prone to overlook it as his opponents. He does not advocate war between different economic groups, but co-operation.

His address was not a fighting speech, but more of a philosophical discourse, and free from any bitterness or personal appeal, and no unprejudiced listener could fail to be impressed with his sincerity, whether accepting his view or not.

Announcement

This is to announce that, on November 1st, the control and management of the Vulcan Opera House passed to Russel Robson, who has for some time been connected with this popular place of amusement. The policy of the house, which has always been to provide first class entertainment, will be continued. The aim will be to improve where and when possible. Conducting a playhouse in a town the size of Vulcan must of necessity be a community enterprise, and the new management respectfully solicits a continuance of the splendid patronage accorded this house, and invites the co-operation of patrons in the effort to secure the best pictures and attractions. The thanks of the new management is tendered in anticipation of public favor.

Russell Robson.
